£5 would buy a rain meter to help villagers in Guatemala monitor the risk of floods.

£15 would pay for a football to be used at a match held to help young people learn about HIV in Sierra Leone.

£30 would pay for 1,000 tree seedlings for a community in Kenya to improve the soil and increase crop yields.

£65 would pay for a garden which could provide an Afghan family with fresh fruit and vegetables for a year.

Thank you for taking part. Your help will make a huge difference to people's lives.

If you would like more information on fundraising, publicity or the work of Christian Aid, you can contact the Events team on: events@christian-aid.org or call the Events hotline on 020 7523 2248.

* Gift Aid declaration I want all donations I have made to Christian Aid in the past four years, and any donations I make in the future, to be Gift-Aided until I notify you otherwise. I pay income tax and/or capital gains tax at least equal to the tax amount the charity reclaims on my donations. (This is currently 25p for every £1 donated. The government will pay an additional 3p on every £1 you give until 5 April 2011.)

† Christian Aid will not pass your details on to any other organisation. If you already receive information from us, we will continue to send it unless you tell us otherwise by writing to us at: Supporter Relations, PO Box 100, London SE1 7RT.

Please note: Christian Aid may not be able to claim Gift Aid under certain circumstances – for example, if you have received a benefit from participating in an event, or if a sponsor is a family member. Please check with Christian Aid or with the Institute of Fundraising for further details. www.institute-of-fundraising.org.uk
