

Grace

For food in a world where many walk in hunger;
For faith in a world where many walk in fear;
For safe homes in a world where many have been forced to flee;
We give you thanks, O Lord.
Amen.

Did you know?

Across the world, 65 million people have been forced to flee their homes.

Christian Aid has been there for refugees since 1945, thanks to people like you. We won't turn our backs now.

A recipe for fighting poverty

Your gift at this Lent Lunch may seem like a small action in the face of global hunger and poverty. But you'll be helping to transform the lives of some of the world's poorest people.

Michael's story

When soldiers began looting and murdering people in Michael's village in South Sudan, he and his family fled for their lives. He is in his eighties and has poor vision, so his neighbours had to guide him to the relative safety of the swamps. When he returned home he had lost everything, but Christian Aid's partner was there to help.

We gave him fishing nets and hooks so that Michael could provide for his family again. Now, he's teaching his loved ones how to fish, giving them the tools to survive should the worst times come again.

We believe in life before death
