giftaid it If you pay UK tax, the government could give Christian Aid an extra 25p for every £1 you give, at no extra cost to you.
All you need to do is check that you agree with the Gift Aid declaration below and fill out all the boxes above.

Your Gift Aid declaration

If I have ticked the box headed 'Gift Aid', I confirm that I am a UK Income or Capital Gains taxpayer. I have read this statement and want Christian Aid to reclaim tax on the donation detailed above, given on the date shown and any donations I make in the future or have made in the past four years. I understand that if I pay less Income Tax or Capital Gains tax than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all my donations in that tax year it is my responsibility to pay any difference.

Please notify the charity if you: • want to cancel this declaration • change your name or home address • no longer pay sufficient tax on your income and/or capital gains.

Ticket sales, entry fees or payments where a required minimum must be paid are not eligible for Gift Aid. If you would like us to claim Gift Aid on an extra donation on top of a required minimum, please record the donation on a separate line.

† If you are new to Christian Aid and do not want to receive further marketing information from Christian Aid, or if you currently receive information from us but no longer wish to, please tick the 'no more from Christian Aid' box by your name. Christian Aid will never share your details with any other organisation.
