

How to run a Big Breaktime event in your school

Every school is different, so you can run a Big Breaktime event to suit you.

How about...

- A special breakfast club

If your school has a breakfast club, could you theme it as a Christian Aid Week breakfast for one day?

- An extended breaktime

A Big Breaktime could mean an extra-long one!

- A cake sale or tuck shop

The ever-popular cake sale always goes down a treat in Christian Aid Week!

Christian Aid Week runs from 13-19 May 2018, but you can hold your event during any week in May.

Download our Stronger than the Storms schools resources at caid.org.uk/schools

Order stickers and a money return slip for your event from caweek.org/brekkiegoodies

You can donate online at: caweek.org/brekkiepay

'Last year, our Big Breakfast was hugely successful and we sold 120 tickets at £2.50 each for the event.

'All of our food was donated by supermarkets and local shops and a friend printed our tickets for free!

'We invited a local news channel to come along, which the children loved and the piece that aired was extremely positive for Christian Aid and our school.

'I was lucky to be able to rely on teachers and support staff to come in and help set up at 7am and serve the children their breakfast!'

Roundhay St John's CE Primary School

The theme for this year's Christian Aid Week is Together we're stronger than the storms. Can you think of creative ways to give your Big Breaktime event a boost of strength?