A Christian Aid speaker workshop for primary schools
Evelin, Guatemala
Evelin and her friend Isabel
East Africa had a serious food crisis in 2011
This family had to leave their home and travel a long distance to escape the drought.
The food crisis meant many thousands had to leave their homes
Christian Aid partners helped to provide emergency food for the people affected.
Tekalech and her mother, Aster, live in Ethiopia, east Africa.
Getting enough food is an ongoing challenge for some remote communities in Bolivia.
Ivana, Bolivia
Ivana’s family are now rearing sheep...
and chickens...
as well as growing cocoa...
which they process into chocolate!
Campaigners demand land rights in India
Campaigners in South Africa demand action on climate change
Campaigners in Kenya demand fairer trade rules
Campaigners in the UK demand fairer tax rules