

Dear

You are warmly invited to join us for a Big Brekkie breakfast in Christian Aid Week 2019.

This Christian Aid Week, we're working with thousands of volunteers, raising money to make childbirth safer for all mothers and babies.

Sierra Leone is the most dangerous place in the world to become a mum. Ten women die from giving birth every day. And in the recent Ebola outbreak, one in ten of the country's medical workers lost their lives caring for others. The crisis has left Sierra Leoneans battling to provide healthcare for their communities.

Fortunately, we can all do something to help.

This year's appeal will build more health clinics, so mums can deliver their babies safely. It will train nurses in urgent maternal care. And it will improve hygiene training, so mums and babies can fight off preventable diseases.

Across the country, Big Brekkie events like ours are bringing communities together. We raise tens of thousands of pounds every year – and have fun doing it. And for everyone who's planning, cooking or donating, it's a real boost when they see people they know joining in.

Whether for a tasty breakfast or just a quick coffee, I hope you'll join me and other members of our community. It would be great to see you there.
