

Breaking Bread Workshop in Edinburgh

19 September 2024, 7-9pm, Augustine United Church

You're invited to our Breaking Bread Workshop at Augustine United Church, 41 George IV Bridge, Edinburgh, EH1 1EL on Thursday 19 September 2024, from 7-9pm.

This workshop will equip you to meet your newly elected/returning MP. MPs are currently in listening mode, they want to get to know their constituents, so this is an important moment to arrange to see them.

So why not come along with a few others from your church to learn more?

Breaking Bread encourages you to meet your MP as a church using an existing church meal or coffee morning. We are taking inspiration from how Jesus often used meals to get to know people, he broke bread with them and chatted to them.

This workshop will:

- Explore how and why to build a strong relationship with your MP (we will also cover MSPs too!).
- Reflect on God's call to act justly.
- Allow you to meet other Christians concerned about global poverty.
- Provide support for you to start making plans for your church to meet your MP using our Breaking Bread Resource (see caid.org.uk/breakbreadMP)

For more information or to reserve your place at this workshop, email Lucy le Roux LLeRoux@christian-aid.org.

If you don't live in Edinburgh but would like to meet your MP using the Breaking Bread resource, get in touch with Lucy as she can also provide support to you.

Please tell her if you do decide to meet your MP as this helps inform Christian Aid's advocacy to MPs.
